

Unwrapping My Gifts

In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

- Romans 12:6-8

In his grace, God has given me gifts for doing certain things well. These gifts are different than the gifts given to others, but mine are no less important. I will enjoy and applaud when my brothers and sisters use their gifts for God's glory. And as for me...

God has given me the ability to _____, and I will with as much faith as God has given me. My gift is _____, and I will _____ well. I am a _____, so will _____ well. My gift is to _____, so I will be _____. With my gift of _____, I will _____ generously. God has given me _____ skills, and I will take the responsibility seriously. And I have a gift for others, so will do it gladly.

Thank You, Father, for the gifts You have bestowed with grace upon me. I offer back to You all I have received, and may it be multiplied. In Jesus' Name, Amen...
